Statement of Commitment

We, the undersigned organization, having reviewed the goals, values and ethical principles of the International Association DOBRO set forth in the Memorandum on the Establishment of the International Association dated 05.12.2025, hereby declare our full commitment to these values and undertake the following obligations:

- respect voluntary participation and equal rights of the members of the International Association;
- conduct activities based on the principles of openness and transparency;
- respect human dignity and universal human rights, and demonstrate mutual trust and respect for cultural differences;
- comply with the principles of non-discrimination, inclusiveness and equal opportunities for all;
- follow the principle of non-violence and the “do no harm” principle in the implementation of any programmes and initiatives;
- ensure the protection of vulnerable groups, including children and youth;
- respect the cultural traditions and traditional values of the countries participating in the International Association, and contribute to the protection and preservation of universal spiritual and moral values;
- promote humanitarian cooperation aimed at practical assistance and sustainable development;
- act constructively and responsibly and ensure the sustainability of implemented initiatives;
- conduct activities exclusively on a non-commercial basis.

Additional Obligations

The organization also confirms that it:

- is not a commercial, governmental or political entity;

- has reviewed the Membership Regulations and the Regulations for the Admission of New Member Organizations of the International Association DOBRO and undertakes to comply with them;
- is prepared to fulfil the obligations corresponding to the declared level of membership, including the timely submission of annual activity reports;
- understands that a violation of this Declaration may constitute grounds for suspension, downgrade of status or expulsion from the membership of the Association in accordance with the Membership Regulations.
